

Władysław Bogucki holds the degree of Master of Science in Electronic Engineering. Throughout his professional career, he has dealt with information technology matters. In 1969-1972, Mr. Bogucki worked in COPI MON as a programmer, and later at the National Information Technology Bureau as a Senior Counselor. In 1975-1980, he worked at the United Nations Statistical Bureau as the Project Leader of UNSIS (United Nations Statistical Information System). Since 1980, he held the office of the Managing Director of Database Department in Centrum Projektowania i Zastosowan Infromatyki (Information Design and Application Center). In 1989-2004, Mr. Bogucki acted as the President of the Management Board of Zeto-Rodan Sp. z o.o. (a limited liability company). Since 2004, he has been the Consultant of PB Polsoft Sp. z o.o. Management Board.